

In Spring term our topic will be Patterns and Textures. We will be exploring and creating patterns and textures. In science we will be developing our awareness of materials having different properties and distinguishing between an object and the materials from which it is made.

Our fiction text this term is The Day the Crayons Quit by Drew Daywalt. It is illustrated by the author of our Autumn 1 text Lost and Found. Our non-fiction text is Craftily Ever After: Tie Die Disaster by Martha Maker. It is illustrated by Xindi Yan.

In humanities we will be learning to understand about historical events which have taken place in the local area and to see patterns in weather, nature and geographical landforms.

In maths we will be copying and repeating patterns, as well as developing our understanding of the conservation of numbers and solving number problems involving addition and subtraction.
