

Welcome to another year in Zebra Class. In September, all the little zebras will be learning about “Stories”. We will use our different communication systems to discover new vocabulary related to various stories related to all the different subjects and we will also work on developing our sensory systems by exploring through our five senses, but the most important thing is that: We will be learning how to work and build relationships with each other!

Taste

Hearing

Sight

Touch

Smell