

During Autumn 2, all the little zebras will be expanding their knowledge about different stories across all the different subjects. They will be using books to focus on the different subjects in order to expand their vocabulary and helping their expressive and receptive communication skills by using their own individual communication systems (AAC, symbols, pictures and objects of reference).

In December we will start celebrating the Christmas season, by taking part in different activities within class and across the school.

